Minimum Wages

3. Manner of calculating the minimum rate of wages. – (1) For the purposes of sub-section (5) of section 6, the minimum rate of wages shall be fixed on the day basis keeping in view the following criteria, namely: -

- (i) the standard working class family which includes a spouse and two children apart from the earning worker; an equivalent of three adult consumption units;
- (ii) a net intake of 2700 calories per day per consumption unit;
- (iii) 66 meters cloth per year per standard working class family;
- (iv) housing rent expenditure to constitute 10 per cent. of food and clothing expenditure;
- (v) fuel, electricity and other miscellaneous items of expenditure to constitute 20 percent of minimum wage; and
- (vi) expenditure for children education, medical requirement, recreation and expenditure on contingencies to constitute 25 per cent of minimum wages;

(2) When the rate of wages for a day is fixed, then, such amount shall be divided by eight for fixing the rate of wages for an hour and multiplied by twenty six for fixing the rate of wages for a month and in such division and multiplication the factors of one-half and more than one-half shall be rounded as next figure and the factors less than one-half shall be ignored.

4. Norms for fixation of minimum rate of wages.- (1) While fixing the minimum rate of wages under section 6, the State Government shall divide the concern geographical area into three categories, that is to say the metropolitan area, non-metropolitan area and the rural area.

(2) The State Government shall constitute a technical committee under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 8 for the purpose of advising the State Government in respect of skill categorization, which shall consist of the following members, namely:-

- (i) Commissioner of Labour / Director of Labour- Chairperson;
- (ii) Joint Secretary / Deputy Secretary to the Government of Gujarat in the Labour and Employment Department dealing with the wages -Member;
- (iii) Director of Employment and Training, Department of Labour and Employment, Government of Gujarat - Member;
- (iv) four representatives, two each from Employer and Employees in wage determination as nominated by State Government - Member; and
- (v) the Assistant Commissioner of Labour, Government of Gujarat - Member Secretary of such technical committee.

(3) The State Government shall, on the advice of the technical committee referred to in sub-rule (2), categorize the occupations of the employees into four categories that is to say unskilled, semiskilled, skilled and highly skilled.

(4) The technical committee referred in sub-rule (2) shall while advising the State Government under sub-rule (3), take into account, to the possible extent, the national classification of occupation or national skills qualification frame work or other similar frame work for the time being formulated to identify occupations.

5. Time Interval for revision of dearness allowance.- Endeavour shall be made so that the cost of living allowance and the cash value of the concession in respect of essential commodities at concession rate shall be computed once before 1st April and then before 1st October in every year to revise the dearness allowance payable to the employees on the minimum wages:

Provided that where immediately before the issue of a notification under section 7, fixing or revising the minimum rates of wages and dearness allowance at a rate higher than the rate so fixed or revised, were payable under this code, or under any law or award or agreement for the time being in force, then notwithstanding anything contained in this code, dearness allowance at such higher rate shall be payable to the employees.

6. Number of Hours of work which shall constitute a normal working day.—(1) The normal working day under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 13 shall be comprised of eight hours of work and one or more intervals of rest which in total shall not exceed one hour.

(2) The working day of an employee shall be so arranged that inclusive of the intervals of rest, if any, it shall not spread over more than twelve hours on any day.

(3) The provisions of sub-rules (1) and (2) shall, in the case of an employee employed in agricultural employment, be subject to such modifications as may, from time to time, be determined by the State Government.

(4) Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to affect the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948 (63 of 1948) or as the case may be the Code on Occupation, Safety and Health and the Gujarat Shops and Establishment Act, 2019

7. Weekly day of rest.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this rule, an employee shall be allowed a day of rest every week (hereinafter referred to as "the rest day") which shall ordinarily be Sunday, but the employer may fix any other day of the week as the rest day for any employee or class of employees:

Provided that an employee shall be entitled for the rest day under this sub-rule if he has worked under the same employer for a continuous period of not less than six days:

Provided further that the employee shall be informed of the day fixed as the rest day and of any subsequent change in the rest day before the change is effected, by display of a notice to that effect in the place of employment at the place specified by the Inspector-cum-Facilitator in this behalf.

Explanation.- For the purpose of computation of the continuous period of not less than six days specified in the first proviso to this sub-rule, any day on which an employee is required to attend for work but is given only an allowance for attendance and is not provided with work, a day on which an employee is laid off on payment of compensation under the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947) or as the case may be the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 on Industrial Relation and any leave or holiday, with or without pay, granted by the employer to an employee in the period of six days immediately preceding the rest day, shall be deemed to be days on which the employee has worked.

(2) Any such employee shall not be required or allowed to work on the rest day unless he has or will have a substituted rest day for a whole day on one of the five days immediately before or after the rest day:

Provided that no substitution shall be made which will result in the employee working for more than ten days consecutively without a rest day for a whole day.

(3) Where in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this rule, any employee works on a rest day and has been given a substituted rest day on any one of the five days before or after the rest day, the rest day shall, for the purpose of calculating the weekly hours of work, be included in the week in which the substituted rest day occurs.

(4) An employee shall be granted-

- (a) for rest day wages calculated at the rate applicable to the next preceding day; and
- (b) where he works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid wages for the rest day on which he worked, at the overtime rate and wages for the substituted rest day at the rate applicable to the next preceding day:

Provided that where-

- (i) the minimum rate of wages of the employee as notified under the Code has been worked out by dividing the minimum monthly rate of wages by twenty-six; or
 - (ii) the actual daily rate of wages of the employee has been worked out by dividing the monthly rate of wages by twenty-six and such actual daily rate of wages is not less than the notified minimum daily rate of wages of the employee, then, no wages for the rest day shall be payable; and
 - (iii) the employee works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid, only for the rest day on which he worked, an amount equal to the wages payable to him at the overtime rate;
- and, if any dispute arises whether the daily rate of wages has been worked out in accordance with the provisions of this proviso, the Director Labour (State) or the Labour Commissioner (State) having territorial jurisdiction may, on application made to him in this behalf, decide the same, after giving an opportunity to the parties concerned to make written representations:

Provided further that in case of an employee governed by a piece-rate system, the wages for the rest day, or the substituted rest day, as the case may be, shall be such as the State Government may, from time to time determine having regard to the minimum rate of wages fixed under the Code, in respect of the employment.

Explanation.- In this sub-rule 'next preceding day' means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day or the substituted rest day, as the case may be; and where the substituted rest day falls on a day immediately after the rest day, the next preceding day means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day.

(5) The provisions of this rule shall not operate to the prejudice of more favourable terms, if any, to which an employee may be, entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service, and in such a case, the employee shall be entitled only to more favourable terms aforesaid.

Explanation.- For the purposes of this rule, 'week' shall mean a period of seven days beginning at midnight on Saturday night.

8. Night shifts.— Where an employee in an employment works on a shift which extends beyond midnight, then, -

- (a) a rest day for the whole day for the purposes of rule 7 shall, in this case means a period of twenty-four consecutive hours beginning from the time when his shift ends; and
- (b) the following day in such a case shall be deemed to be the period of twenty-four hours beginning from the time when such shift ends, and the hours after midnight during which such employee was engaged in work shall be counted towards the previous day.

9. The extent and conditions for the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 13.- In case of employees-

- (a) engaged in any emergency which could not have been foreseen or prevented;
- (b) engaged in work of the nature of preparatory or complementary work which must necessarily be carried on outside the limits laid down for the general working in the employment concerned;
- (c) whose employment is essentially intermittent;
- (d) engaged in any work which for technical reasons has to be completed before the duty is over; and
- (e) engaged in a work which could not be carried on except at times dependent on the irregular action of natural forces; the provisions of rules 6, 7 and 8 shall apply subject to the condition that -

- (i) the spread over of the hours of work of the employee shall not exceed 16 hours in any day; and
- (ii) the actual hours of work excluding the intervals of rest and the periods of inaction during which the employee may be on duty but is not called upon to display either physical activity or sustained attendance shall not exceed 9 hours in any day.

LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT DEPARTMENTNotification

Sachivalaya, Gandhinagar, Dated 5th October, 2021.

Industrial Relations Code, 2020

No. KHR/2021/129/IDA-122020-539471-M(2):- WHEREAS, certain draft rules were published as required by sub-section (1) of section 99 of the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 (35 of 2020), at pages 2/1 to 2/90 in Gujarat Government Gazette, Extraordinary, Part I-L, dated the 31st March, 2021, under Government Notification Labour and Employment Department NO. KHR-2021-30-IDA-122020-539471-M(2) dated 31st March, 2021, inviting objections and suggestions from all persons likely to be affected thereby for a period of thirty days from the date of its publication in the official Gazette;

AND WHEREAS, objections and suggestions have been received and considered by the Government in respect of the said notification;

NOW THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 99 of the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 (35 of 2020) (hereinafter referred as the said "Code") read with section 24 of the General Clauses Act, 1897(10 of 1897) and in supersession of The Gujarat Trade Union Regulations, 1963; The Bombay Industrial Employment (Standing Order) Rules, 1959; and The Industrial Disputes (Gujarat) Rules, 1966; the Government of Gujarat hereby makes following rules namely: -

CHAPTER - I PRELIMINARY

1. Short title and application. - (1) These rules may be called the Industrial Relations (Gujarat) Rules, 2021.

(2) They shall extend to whole of Gujarat in respect to the industrial establishments and matters for which the Gujarat Government is the appropriate Government.

(3) They shall come into the force from the commencement of the Industrial Relations Code, 2020.

2. Definitions. - (1) In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires, -

(a.) "Code" means the Industrial Relations Code, 2020;

(b.) "Section" means the section of the Code;

(c.) "Electronically" means any information submitted by email or uploading on the designated portal or digital payment in any mode for the purpose of the Code;

(2) The words and expressions used in these rules which are not defined therein, but are defined in the Code, shall have their respective meaning as assigned to them in the Code.

3. Written agreement for the settlement before the Conciliation Officer under clause (zi) of section 2. - The agreement under clause (zi) of section 2 for written agreement between the employer and worker shall be in the form specified in FORM-I and shall be required to signed by both the parties to the agreement and a copy thereof shall be sent to the concerned Conciliation Officer.

CHAPTER II

BI-PARTITE FORUMS

4. Constitution of Works Committee etc. under section 3.- (1) Every employer to whom an order made under sub-section (1) of section 3 relates, shall forthwith proceed to constitute a Works Committee in the manner as is specified in the following sub-rules: -

(2) The number of members constituting the Committee shall be fixed so as to afford representation to the various categories, groups and class of workers engaged in, and to the sections, shops or departments of the establishment:

Provided that the total number of members of the Works Committee shall not exceed twenty:

Provided further that the number of representatives of the worker in the Works Committee shall not be less than the number of representatives of the employer therein.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this rule, the representatives of the employer in the Works Committee shall be nominated by the employer and shall, as far as may be possible, be officials in direct touch with, or associated with, the working of the industrial establishment.

(4) (a) Where any workers of the industrial establishment are members of a registered Trade Union, the employer shall ask such Trade Union to inform him in writing as to how many of the workers are members of such Trade Union.

(b) Where an employer has reason to believe that the information furnished to him under clause (a) by the registered Trade Union is false, he may, after informing such Trade Union, refer the matter to the Deputy Registrar as appointed for respective jurisdiction under section 5 (1) of the Code, who shall, after hearing the parties, shall decide the matter and his decision shall be final.

(5) On receipt of the information called for under sub-rule (4), the employer shall provide for the selection of worker's representative on the Committee in two following groups, namely: -

(a) registered Trade Union may choose their representatives as members for works committee in the proportion of their membership.

(b) where there is no registered Trade union, workers may choose amongst themselves representatives for works committee.

(6)(a) The Works Committee shall have among its office-bearers a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Secretary and a Joint-Secretary. The Secretary and the Joint-Secretary shall be elected every year.

(b) the Chairman shall be nominated by the employer from amongst the employer's representatives on the Works Committee and he shall, as far as possible, be the head of the industrial establishment;

(c) the Vice-Chairman shall be elected by the members, on the Works Committee representing the workers, from amongst themselves:

Provided that in the event of equality of votes in the election of the Vice- Chairman, the matter shall be decided by draw of a lot.

(d) the Works Committee shall elect the Secretary and the Joint Secretary provided that where the Secretary is elected from amongst the representatives of the employers, the Joint Secretary shall be elected from amongst the representatives of the worker and vice versa:

Provided that the post of the Secretary or the Joint Secretary, as the case may be, shall not be held by a representative of the employer or the worker for two consecutive years:

Provided that the representatives of the employer shall not take part in the election of the Secretary or Joint Secretary, as the case may be, from amongst the representatives of the worker and only the representatives of the worker shall be entitled to vote in such elections.

(e) In any election under clause (d), in the event of equal votes, the matter shall be decided by a draw of lot.

(7) (a) the term of office of the representatives on the Works Committee other than a member chosen to fill a casual vacancy shall be two years;

(b) A member chosen to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of his predecessor;

(c) A member who without obtaining leaves from the Works Committee, fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Committee shall forfeit his membership.

(8) In the event of worker's representative ceasing to be a member under clause (c) of sub-rule (7) or ceasing to be employed in the establishment or in the event of his resignation, death or otherwise, his successor shall be chosen in accordance with the provisions of this rule from the same group to which the member vacating the seat belonged.

(9) The Works Committee shall have the right to co-opt in a consultative capacity, persons employed in the industrial establishment having particular or special knowledge of a matter under discussion. Such co-opted member shall not be entitled to vote and shall be present at meetings only for the period during which the particular question is before the Works Committee.

(10) (a) the Works Committee may meet as often as necessary but not less often than once in three months.

(b) the Works Committee shall at its first meeting regulate its own procedure.

(11) (a) the employer shall provide accommodation for holding meetings of the Works Committee. He shall also provide all necessary facilities to the Works Committee and to the members thereof for carrying out the work of the Works Committee. The Works Committee shall ordinarily meet during working hours of the industrial establishment concerned on any working day and the representative of the worker shall be deemed to be on duty while attending the meeting;

(b) the Secretary of the Works Committee may with the prior concurrence of the Chairman, put up notice regarding the work of the Works Committee on the notice board of the industrial establishment.

5. Manner of choosing members from the employers and the workers for Grievance Redressal Committee under sub-section (2) of section 4.-

(1) The Grievance Redressal Committee shall consist of equal number of members representing the employer and the workers, which shall not exceed ten.

(2) The representatives of the employer shall be nominated by the employer and shall, as far as may be possible, be officials in direct touch with or associated with the working of the industrial establishment, preferably the heads of major departments of the industrial establishment.

(3) The representatives of the workers shall be chosen by the registered Trade Union. In case where there is no registered Trade union the member may be chosen by the workers of the industrial establishment:

Provided that there shall be adequate representation of women workers in the Grievance Redressal Committee and such representation shall not be less than the proportion of women workers to the total workers employed in the industrial establishment:

Provided further that the tenure of the members of the Grievance Redressal Committee shall be co-terminus with the tenure of the members of the registered Trade Union.

Provided further that in the absence of registered Trade Union, the tenure of members of Grievance Redressal Committee shall be for a period of two years from the date of the constitution of the Grievance Redressal Committee.

(4) Where any workers of the industrial establishment are members of a registered Trade Union, the employer shall ask such Trade Union to inform him in writing as to –

(a) how many of the workers are members of such Trade Union;

(b) Where an employer has reason to believe that the information furnished to him under clause (a) by the registered Trade Union is false, he may, after informing such Trade Union, refer the matter to the Deputy Registrar as appointed for respective jurisdiction under Section 5 (1) of the Code, who shall, after hearing the parties, shall decide the matter and his decision shall be final.

(5) On receipt of the information called for under sub-rule (4), the employer shall provide for the selection of worker's representative on the Committee by two following groups, namely: -

- (a) registered Trade Union may choose their representatives as members for Grievance Redressal Committee in the proportion of their membership.
- (b) such workers those who are not member of registered Trade Union, may choose amongst themselves representatives for the Grievance Redressal Committee.

6. Application in respect of any dispute to be filed before the Grievance Redressal Committee by any aggrieved worker under sub-section (5) of section 4. - Any aggrieved worker may file an application stating his dispute therein before the Grievance Redressal Committee giving his name, designation, employee Code, Department where posted, length of service in years, category of worker, address for correspondence, contact number, details of grievances and relief sought. Such application may be sent electronically or otherwise. The Grievance may be raised within one year from the date on which the cause of action of such dispute arises.

7. Manner of filing application for the conciliation of grievance as against the decision of the Grievance Redressal Committee to the conciliation officer under sub-section (8) of section 4.- Any worker who is aggrieved by the decision of the Grievance Redressal Committee or whose grievance is not resolved by the said Committee within thirty days of receipt of the application, may file an application through Portal of the Commissioner/Director of Labour as mentioned on website of the same or by registered post or speed post or personally within a period of sixty days from the date of the decision of the Grievance Redressal Committee or from the date on which the period specified in sub-section (6) of section 4 expires, as the case may be, to the conciliation officer as appointed for respective jurisdiction under section 2(i) of the Code through the Trade Union, of which he is a member or otherwise:

Provided that in case of manual receipt of such application through registered post or speed post, the conciliation officer shall get the same digitized and enter the particulars of the application in the online mechanism under intimation to the concerned worker.

CHAPTER III STANDING ORDERS

8. Manner of forwarding information to certifying officer under sub-section (3) of section 30. - (1) If the employer adopts the model standing order of the Central Government referred to in section 29 with respect to matters relevant to his industrial establishment or undertaking, then, he shall intimate the concerned certifying officer electronically the specific date from which the provisions of the model standing order which are relevant to his establishment have been adopted.

(2) On receipt of information in sub-rule (1) the certifying officer within a period of thirty days from such receipt may give his observation that the employer is required to include certain provisions which are relevant to his establishment and indicate those relevant provisions of the model standing orders which have not been adopted and shall also direct the employer to amend the standing order so adopted, by way of addition, deletion or modification within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of such direction and ask for compliance report only in respect of provisions which the certifying officer seeks to get so amended and such report shall be sent electronically by the employer.

(3) If no observation is made by certifying officer within a period of thirty days of the receipt of the information as specified in sub-rule (1) and (2), then, the standing order shall be deemed to have been adopted by the employer.

9. Manner of choosing representatives of workers of the industrial establishment or undertaking for issuing notice by certifying officer where there is no Trade Union operating, under clause (ii) of sub-section (5) of section 30. – Where there is no such Trade Union as is referred to in clause (i) of said sub-section (5), then, the certifying officer shall call a meeting of the workers to choose three representatives, to whom he shall, upon their being chosen, forward a copy of the standing order requiring objections, if any, which the workers may desire to make to the draft standing order to be submitted within fifteen days from the receipt of the notice.

10. Manner of authentication of certified standing orders under sub-section (8) of section 30.– Standing orders or modification in the standing orders, certified in pursuance of sub-section (8) of section 30 or the copies of the order of the appellate authority under sub-section (1) of section 33 shall be authenticated by the certifying officer or the appellate authority, as the case may be, and shall be sent electronically within a week to all concerned, but there shall not be any requirement of certification in cases of deemed certification under sub-section (3) of section 30 and in cases where the employer has certified adoption of model standing orders.

11. Statement to be accompanied with draft standing orders under sub-section (9) of section 30.– A statement to be accompanied with-

- (i.) draft standing order shall contain, the particulars such as name of the industrial establishment or undertaking concerned, address, e-mail address, contact number and strength and details of workers employed therein including particulars of Trade union to which such workers belong; and
- (ii.) draft modification in the existing standing orders, shall contain the particulars of such standing orders which are proposed to be modified along with a tabular statement containing details of each of the relevant provision of standing order in force and proposed modification therein and reasons thereof and such statement shall be signed by a person authorized by the industrial establishment or undertaking.

12. Conditions for submission of draft standing order in similar establishment under sub-section (10) of section 30.– In cases of group of employer engaged in similar industrial establishment may submit a joint draft standing order under section 30 and for the purpose of proceedings specified in sub-sections (1), (5), (6), (8) and (9) thereof after consultation with the concerned Trade union.

Provided that the joint draft standing orders, in cases of group of employers engaged in similar industrial establishments, will be drafted and submitted to the Commissioner/Director of Labour as the case may be, who shall, in consultation with the concerned certifying officers, certify or refuse to certify the said joint draft standing order, after recording reasons there for.

13. Manner of disposal of appeal by appellate authority under section 32.- (1) An employer or Trade Union desirous of preferring an appeal against the order of the certifying officer given under sub-section (5) of section 30 shall within sixty days of the receipt of such order shall draw up a memorandum of appeal in tabular form stating therein the provisions of the standing orders which are required to be altered or modified or deleted or added and reasons thereof and shall be filed electronically to the appellate authority.

(2) The appellate authority shall fix a date for the hearing of the appeal and direct notice thereof to be given –

- (a.) where the appeal is filed by the employer or a worker, to Trade Union of the workers of the industrial establishment or to the representative body of the workers concerned or to the employer, as the case may be;
- (b.) where the appeal is filed by a Trade Union, to the employer and all other Trade Unions of the workers of the industrial establishment; and
- (c.) where the appeal is filed by the representative of the workers, to the employer and any other worker whom the appellate authority joins as a party to the appeal.

(3) The appellant shall furnish each of the respondents with a copy of the memorandum of appeal.

(4) The appellate authority may at any stage of the proceeding call for any evidence, if it considers necessary for the disposal of the appeal.

(5) On the date fixed under sub-rule (2) for the hearing of the appeal, the appellate authority shall take such evidence as it may have called or consider to be relevant if produced and after hearing the parties dispose of the appeal.

14. The language and the manner of maintaining standing order under sub-section (1) and (2) of section 33.- (1) The standing order finally certified by certifying officer shall be sent electronically except in the case of deemed certification under section 30.

(2) The text of the standing order as finally certified or deemed to have been certified or adopted model standing order under this Chapter shall be maintained by the employer in English and in Gujarati.

15. Register for final certified copy of Standing Order under section 34.- (1) The certifying officer shall maintain electronically, a register of all standing orders certified or deemed to have been certified or adopted model standing orders of all the concerned industrial establishments, inter- alia, containing the details of –

- (a.) the unique number assigned to each standing order;
- (b.) name of industrial establishment;
- (c.) nature of industrial establishment;
- (d.) date of certification or deemed certification or date of adoption of model standing order by each establishment or undertaking;
- (e.) the areas of the operation of the industrial establishment; and
- (f.) such other details as may be relevant and helpful in retrieving the standing orders and create a data base of such of all standing orders.

(2) The certifying officer shall furnish a copy of the certified standing orders or deemed certifying orders to any person applying there for on payment of two rupees per page of the certified standing orders or deemed certified standing orders, as the case may be. The payment for such purpose can also be made through electronic mode.

16. Application for modification of Standing Order under sub-section (2) of section 35. -

The application for modification of an existing standing order under sub-section (2) of section 35 shall be submitted electronically and contain the particulars of such standing orders which are proposed to be modified along with a tabular statement containing details of each of the relevant provisions of standing order in force, and proposed modifications therein, reasons thereof and the details of registered Trade union(s) operating therein, and such statement shall be signed by a person authorized by the industrial establishment or undertaking.

CHAPTER IV NOTICE OF CHANGE

17. The manner of giving of notice for change proposed to be effected under clause (i) of section 40. - (1) Any employer intending to effect any change in the conditions of service applicable to any worker in respect of any matter specified in the Third Schedule to the Code, shall give notice in FORM-II to such worker affected by such change.

(2) The notice referred in sub-rule (1) shall be displayed conspicuously by the employer on the notice board at the main entrance of the industrial establishment and the office of the concerned Manager of the industrial establishment:

Provided that where there is a registered Trade Union or registered Trade Unions relating to the industrial establishment a copy of such notice shall also be served on the Secretary of such Trade Union or each of the Secretaries of such Unions, as the case may be.

CHAPTER V

(3) Documents shall be open to inspection every day on which the office of the Registrar is open and within such hours as may be fixed for this purpose by the Registrar.

60. Rights and obligations of sole negotiating union or negotiating council under sub-section (1) of section 14. - (1) Sole negotiating union or negotiating council may negotiate in respect of matters pertaining to any dispute or difference between employers and workers which is connected with the employment or non-employment or the terms of employment or with the conditions of labour, of any person and includes any dispute or difference between an individual worker and an employer connected with, or arising out of discharge, dismissal, retrenchment or termination of such worker.

(2) The executive committee of the trade union shall meet at an interval of not more than three months.

(3) All resolutions passed, whether by the executive committee or the general body of the trade union, shall be recorded in a minute book kept for the purpose.

61. Criteria for recognition of trade union as Sole Negotiating union or Negotiating Council under section 14. - Criteria for recognition of Sole Negotiating union or Negotiating Council under sub-sections (2), (3) and (4) of section 14 shall be as follows, namely: -

(1.) A Trade Union claiming as sole negotiating union of the workers or for inclusion in a negotiating council shall apply to the industrial establishment along with list of its members of that particular establishment.

(2.) On receiving a claim from a registered trade union as mentioned in sub-rule (1), the verification of the same shall be carried out by the industrial establishment as specified in rule 61.

(3.) Where there is more than one trade union in an industrial establishment, a trade union claiming recognition shall have completed a period of six months after its registration. Where there is only one union, this condition would not apply.

(4.) The membership of the trade union shall be counted only of those members who had paid their subscriptions for at least three months during the period of six months immediately preceding the reckoning.

62. Verification process for recognition of trade union as sole negotiating union or negotiating Council under Section 14. - Verification process for recognition of sole negotiating union or negotiating Council under sub-section (3) of section 14 shall be as follow, namely: -

(1.) The industrial establishment shall extend the facility of deduction of union subscription from the wages of the member worker who authorizes deduction of subscription in writing and the amount so deducted shall be deposited, electronically or otherwise, in the official bank account of the Trade Union.

(2.) In case of worker being member of multiple trade unions then the last subscription deducted shall be considered for the aforesaid purpose.

63. Authority to decide in case of dispute. - In case dispute arises for recognition of trade union, as a sole negotiating union or negotiating council, the decision of the authorities notified under section 5 shall be final and binding to the parties of the dispute.

64. Facilities to Negotiating Union or Negotiating Council. - The facilities to be provided by the industrial establishment under sub-section (7) of section 14 to a negotiating union or negotiating council shall be mutually decided by the industrial establishment and a negotiating union or negotiating council, as the case may be.

65. Objects on which general funds may be spent under sub-section (1) of section 15. - The general funds of a registered Trade Union shall not be spent on any other object than the following, namely: -

- (a) the payment of wages, allowances and expenses to office-bearers of the Trade Union;
- (b) the payment of expenses for the administration of the Trade Union, including audit of the accounts of the general funds of the Trade Union;
- (c) the prosecution or defense of any legal proceeding to which the Trade Union or any member thereof is a party, when such prosecution or defense is undertaken for the purpose of securing or protecting any rights of the Trade Union as such or any rights arising out of the relations of any member with his employer or with a person whom the member employs;
- (d) the conduct of trade disputes on behalf of the Trade Union or any member thereof;
- (e) the compensation of members for loss arising out of trade disputes;
- (f) allowances to members or their dependents on account of death, old age, sickness, accidents or unemployment of such members;
- (g) the issue of, or the undertaking of liability under, policies of assurance on the lives of members, or (under) policies insuring members against sickness, accident or unemployment;

(h) the provisions of education, social or religious benefits for members (including the payment of the expenses of funeral or religious ceremonies for deceased members) or for the dependents of members;

(i) the upkeep of a periodical published, mainly for the purpose of discussing questions affecting employers or workmen as such;

(j) the payment, in furtherance of any of the objects on which the general funds of the Trade Union may be spent, of contributions to any cause intended to benefit workmen in general, provided that the expenditure in respect of such contributions in any financial year shall not at any time during that year be in excess of 1/4th of the combined total of the gross income which has up to that time accrued to the general funds of the Trade Union during that year and of the balance at the credit of those funds at the commencement of that year.

66. Constitution of a separate fund for political purposes.- (1) A registered Trade Union may constitute a separate fund, from contributions separately levied for or made to that fund, from which payments may be made, for the promotion of the Trade Union or any office-bearer or member thereof in respect of any act done in contemplation or furtherance of a trade dispute to which a member of the Trade Union is a party on the ground only that such act induces some other person to break a contract of employment, or that it is in interference with the trade, business or employment of some other person or with the right of some other person to dispose of his capital or of his labour as he wills.

(2) A registered Trade Union shall not be liable in any suit or other legal proceeding in any Civil Court in respect of any tortuous act done in contemplation or furtherance of a trade dispute by an agent of the Trade Union if it is proved that such person acted without the knowledge of, or contrary to express instructions given by, the executive of the Trade Union.
